Lots of space

This plain white walls property has four bedrooms, one of them being a suite, as well as an office with great views, and two modern bathrooms equipped with big cabin showers with cristal enclosure. And let's not forget the modern kitchen with its minimalist flair.

Full of life

The area is Valencia's always active center. It is full of life. Included with the property is a private parking, so having a vehicle is no problem at all. The building has a lift and the property includes a storage room as well.
