

HENDAYA FENG SHUI

Yin-yang energy

L'Elia, Valencia

El Carme Hendaya is one of the best areas of the La Elia Urbanization due to its tranquility, its location surrounded by nature, and its proximity to the town of La Elia with its restaurants, leisure areas, and San Antonio de Benagéber. It offers easy access to schools, is close to a tennis club, and sports facilities.

Fluid Energy

This unique property combines Asian tradition with practicality in a peaceful setting, paying attention to even the smallest detail. The construction style, based on Feng Shui, separates the day and night areas in such a way that energy flows in a balanced manner. The vertical and horizontal furniture, colors, light intensity, and other variables are all carefully considered in this space to make the most of it.

Space and Design

The house features a large living-dining room and a designer kitchen with a terrace and views of the landscape. The ground floor includes a Philippe Starck bathroom and two bedrooms. A beautiful solid wood staircase leads to the upper level, where the master bedroom with a walk-in closet and two additional bedrooms are located. In the basement, there is an independent apartment with a bathroom and kitchen, ideal for hosting guests. It can also be used as a game room or gym. The house sits on a large plot with a 48m² pool, a chill-out area, a covered summer terrace, and a barbecue.
