A bright Mediterranean space

This villa offers a main bedroom and a guest room en-suite, as well as a separate guest area and an office on the ground floor. The decoration has neutral, Mediterranean ochre colors, with open, bright spaces and direct access to terraces in order to enjoy the wonderful sea views.

Typical of high standards

The property features two kitchens, one of which is located on the outside and enclosed by glass, which makes it ideal for all seasons of the year. The ceilings are high and rounded, covered with century-style curved ceramic tiles. It is a chalet integrated into the mountain, surrounded by typical vegetation from the region. The gardens are landscaped to a high standard, with natural rock walls.
